

The Future of GIS in NYC

Monday, April 23, 2018
3:00 PM - 6:00 PM

The Roosevelt House Public Policy Institute
at Hunter College
47-49 East 65th Street
New York, NY 10065

Forum to convene all the major GIS agencies in NYC to begin discussions on a strategic document, "Guiding Principles and Policies For New York City's Geospatial Architecture," addressing issues of resilience, emergency response and recovery, data sharing and integration.

Free and open to the public

<https://livestream.com/roosevelthouse/future-gis-nyc>

RSVP Required. Seating is limited.
2018nycgisprinciples.eventbrite.com

Special thanks to our generous sponsors.

HUNTER
The City University of New York

ROOSEVELT HOUSE
PUBLIC POLICY INSTITUTE
AT HUNTER COLLEGE

PROGRAM

- 2:30 Doors Open
- 3:00 Welcome & Introduction
- 3:10 History of GIS in NYC
Sean Ahearn, Director, CARSI;
Professor, Hunter College
- 3:30 GIS Principles and Policies
Alan Leidner, President,
GISMO; Director, Center for Geospatial Innovation; FCNY
- 3:50 Panelists:
George Percivall, Chief
Technology Officer, OGC

Gregory Yetman, Associate
Director, CIESIN, Columbia University

John Konarski, Executive Director, AGS

Amen Ra Mashariki, Director,
Urban Analytics, ESRI

Jeff Ferzoco, Public Sector
Technical Advisor, Carto

Tim Keane, GIS Manager, NYC
DoITT

Reception to follow.